

Sunnyside Camp Informed Consent, Waiver & Release Form

1. The parent or guardian submitting this registration has legal responsibility for the person named in the registration and is taking full responsibility for the payment of fees and expenses incurred. Conditions of custody relating to the Camper, if applicable, will be fully communicated in writing to the Sunnyside Camp, including a photocopy of the section of any court order referring to visitation rights.
2. The parent or guardian hereby agrees to reimburse the Sunnyside Camp for any damage caused by the Camper.
3. The parent or guardian gives permission for Sunnyside Pentecostal Camp, the Alberta & NWT District of The Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada (PAOC), and/or Pentecostal Tabernacle of Calgary to use photo and video footage of the Camper for Sunnyside Camp promotional materials.
4. Sunnyside Pentecostal Camp, the Alberta & NWT District of The PAOC, and/or Pentecostal Tabernacle of Calgary will not be held responsible for items lost or stolen during Sunnyside Camp.
5. The parent or guardian submitting this registration confirms that the Camper is in good physical and emotional health and will be responsive to normal Sunnyside Camp authority and discipline. The Director/Administrator reserves the right to remove any Camper from the program who, in his or her opinion, is a hazard to the safety or the rights of others, or who appears to have rejected the reasonable controls of the Sunnyside Camp. This may range from missing an activity to complete dismissal depending on the situation.
6. In the event that a Camper requires special medication, transportation, x-ray or treatment beyond that which is possible at the Sunnyside Camp, the parent or guardian will be immediately notified and will be responsible for any additional expense.
7. In the case of surgical emergency, the parent or guardian hereby gives permission to the physician selected by the Director/Administrator/Coordinator to hospitalize, secure proper treatment and to order injection, anaesthesia or surgery for the Camper named on the registration.
8. While every precaution shall be taken to ensure the good welfare and protection of the Camper, Sunnyside Pentecostal Camp, the Alberta & NWT District of The PAOC, and/or Pentecostal Tabernacle of Calgary their Directors, administrators, staff members, volunteers and employees are hereby released from any and all claims, demands, rights of action, causes of action, present or future, whether the same be known, anticipated or unanticipated.
9. Over the duration of camp, there will be two registered psychologists on site. The parent or guardian authorizes their child to receive counselling services from a registered psychologist if needed while attending camp. The psychologist may communicate with camp staff to ensure the child's safety and well-being, and any information shared will be kept confidential except when disclosure is necessary to prevent harm or as required by law. Every effort will be made to involve parents or guardians in discussions surround the child's mental health. The parent/guardian acknowledges that counselling services will be provided at the child's request, and if more specialized or intensive services are needed, the psychologist will refer the child to appropriate resources outside of camp.
10. It is hereby acknowledged that the parent or guardian leaves the Camper with the Sunnyside Camp at the Camper's own risk and the Sunnyside Camp shall not be liable for any damages arising from any personal injuries sustained by the Camper, on or about the lands and premises of Sunnyside Pentecostal Camp or while engaged in or attending any classes, exercises, activities, programs or events whether on or off the lands of Sunnyside Pentecostal Camp.
11. Due to new regulations in Alberta, counsellors under the age of 18 are no longer permitted to receive a police check. This only impacts Pre-teen camp, and to ensure counsellors under 18 can be trusted with individuals in the vulnerable sector multiple references are collected and screened prior to counsellor acceptance.
